Nestled in the heart of North Herefordshire, this charming 19th-century stone holiday cottage, once the gamekeeper's residence for the historic Bateman Estate, offers the perfect retreat. Located in a secluded corner of Pearl Lake Country Holiday Park, this beautifully renovated cottage combines timeless character with modern comforts.

If you're looking for a holiday cottage in Herefordshire, then look no further than Keepers. It enjoys a stunning position alongside our exclusive 9-hole golf course. A gentle stroll will take you to the park's magnificent 15-acre fishing lake, steeped in history and surrounded by natural beauty. Ideal for larger families or family or friends get together!

Your cottage stay features:

- Spacious Accommodation: Comfortably sleeps up to six guests with three delightful bedrooms – two doubles and one twin. All bedrooms have ample wardrobe storage and flat screen TVs. Master bedroom has unspoilt views over our golf course.
- Modern Conveniences: Includes a fully equipped utility room, an upstairs bathroom with bath and shower attachment, and a convenient downstairs shower room with large cubicle and ladder radiator.
- Large Living Space When you enter Keepers through the impressive, stone arched rear door, you know you're in for something special. There's a large formal dining room - very Bridgerton! The kitchen is really generous and also has a large table that seats at least 6. It's fully equipped including with an American style fridge/freezer. The beautiful
